Boosterthon Raising Funds For Palencia Elementary

At left, PTO staffers Jill Nuzzo, Victoria Rosenbaum, Heather Rebella and Denise Weidenaar are hopeful this year's Boosterthon will be a great success.

Below, students collect a designated amount of dollars per lap at the Boosterthon Fun Run.

It's time for the annual Boosterthon fundraiser at Palencia Elementary School with students once again raising funds for the school while having fun, gaining school spirit and being active!

Palencia Tennis Center Hosts "See The Girl" Tournament

Join friends and tennis enthusiasts for a second year of friendly competition on the court while supporting the Delores Barr Weaver Policy Center's work to advance the rights of girls and elevate justice reform, gender equity and system accountability through research-based community solutions and bold policy – all with a girl-centered approach. Tournament is September 30th and October 1st at the Palencia Tennis Center. Jennifer Lee and Lindy Lollar, both Palencia residents, are co-chairing this event for the second year.

Serve It, Smash It, Win It... Pickleball Is Big Hit In Palencia

The magic of Pickleball is combining all age groups in a fun and social sport. The oldest Pickleball Player at Palencia and part of the League (Helmut Loeffler - mid 80s, at right) enjoys competitive games and plays often with the youngest Palencia Pickleball Club team members (Jenna Zakaria, age 7, 2nd grade and Matthis McDonald, age 9, 4th grade).
