Palencia Residents 'Spring' Into Fun At Annual Festival

Palencia's annual Spring Festival was a big hit and drew large crowds to the Market Street area. The event included live music and dancing by the local band First Street Project as well as great buys from local vendors. Plenty of artists were among the vendors who were able to display their talent and craftsmanship as residents savored flavors of the season from busy food trucks. A perfect Florida Spring weather day added to the fun and festivities. See Page 19 for more photos.
